

All CRBL sponsorship's will be sold digitally. Below are the details of having ads in a digital format.

Sponsors

- Sponsor gets a link to their website with a logo. If no business website, a Facebook business page or similar can be submitted.
- Sponsor Logo(s) and URL's can be submitted to zutter@hotmail.com in PNG or JPG format - A picture (with your phone) of a business card can accomplish most of the information needed if no logo is available.
- No design work will be completed by Chad Zutter

To help with Website Costs and time to upload sponsorship information, each team would be asked to donate - $50 - to Chad Zutter. This is to help cover my annual cost of maintaining the website, which varies between $400-$450 dollars.

Donations can be sent to:

Osseo Merchants

2019 was another successful season for the boys in blue, winning the CRBL South title and the league championship for the fourth consecutive year. The Merchants advanced to the WBA final 8 once again. On the field, the defense was led by the arms of Logan Boettcher and Luke Eide. They were backed by a steady-handed bunch of ball hawks around the diamond. Jesse Brockman sparkled at shortstop, and as usual not too many errant throws got by Joe Zawacki at first base. The offense was led by perennial league MVP Ryan Freitag who filled the stat sheet as he does every year. Our veteran lineup was bolstered by some new faces including Jaxon Kostka and Reese Vold. The Merchants look to continue this historic run by returning most of a talented roster along with some new faces. We would like to thank the local businesses and community members. Running an organization like ours would be impossible without their support. See you at the ballpark. WWMD!
